

Ukraine War Disinfo Working Group

SUMMARY REPORT

September 26 – October 2, 2022

This report collates insight drawn from the monitoring of narratives trending across pro-Kremlin sites and social media across fourteen countries in Central and Eastern Europe, as they relate to Russia's war in Ukraine. The data is collected and analysed by a number of NGOs, think tanks and researchers, and collated by the Open Information Partnership (OIP), to promote knowledge sharing across the OIP network and the broader region. The analysis contained in this report is the result of each group's monitoring, it is not authored by and does not represent the view of OIP, the FCDO or Zinc Network.

Notes on terminology

The following overview summarises developing disinformation narratives by country, including new or shifting narratives and key cases. These development and insights primarily relate to narratives about the following themes:

- Events related to the Russia-Ukraine War
- (Negative) Economic Consequences of Sanctions
- Refugees
- Conditions of Russians and Russian-speaking Minorities
- Military Threats to Eastern Europe/Risk of War Expanding Beyond Ukraine
- Military Aid to Ukraine

This monitoring takes two forms:

1. Monitoring of Hostile State-Aligned Media: Using NewsWhip to collate all articles on the primary narratives listed above from outlets deemed to be funded by, formally or informally affiliated with, or reliably sympathetic to Hostile States.
2. Social Media Monitoring: Using open-source data collection tools and methods to monitor and analyse social media conversations about the primary narratives for disinformation, summarising prominent and emerging themes.

Note: “Interactions” refers to each time that a post was actively engaged with or responded to on a particular platform. For example, Facebook interactions encompass comments, shares, likes, and other reactions, and Twitter interactions encompass likes and re-tweets. The figures quoted in this report are the sum total of interactions across Twitter and Facebook unless otherwise specified. “Articles” as stated below refers to the number of published articles and social media posts featuring the narrative in question combined.

BALTICS (RUSSIAN-LANGUAGE)

Civic Resilience Initiative

- The priority topic for disinformation targeting the Russian-speaking population of the Baltics (16 posts, 27022 interactions this week) remains alleged Russophobia. This time, manipulators focused on i) critiquing Latvia's decision to tackle the Soviet monument problem instead of allocating their resources to "more important issues" ii) exploiting controversy over the Baltic states' new language laws (i.e., Latvia's decision to suspend teachers if they cannot speak Latvian at the required level), iii) accusing the Baltic states of attempting to "rewrite history".
- The "Sanctions hurt the West more than Russia" (9 posts, 25662 interactions) narrative sharply rose in popularity after not appearing at all last week. Kremlin-backed messengers claimed that many Estonian and Latvian businessmen and EU parliamentarians are against anti-Russian sanctions, the cost to local economies is too high.
- Covering the events of the war, propagandists continue to turn a blind eye to the successful offensive of the Ukrainian army in Kharkiv and Donetsk oblasts, including the liberation of Lyman. Instead, they accuse Ukrainians of killing civilians and focus on local victories of individual units of the Russian army, attempting to create an illusion of Russian military success.
- This week, Baltnews' Telegram page gathered the most interactions, averaging around 3,600 interactions per post.

For comparison, the most interacted with individual Ukraine-related article across Russian-language Baltic news portals this week received 1,900 interactions.

EVENTS OF THE RUSSIA-UKRAINE WAR

Continuing sub-narratives:

Ukraine is targeting innocent civilians

Articles:

4

Interactions:

11,719

Posts tried to prove that the Kyiv regime purposefully kills women and children and treats war prisoners in an inhumane way.

Russia is liberating Ukraine

Articles:

6

Interactions:

6,818

Posts this week emphasized that referenda in Donbas and Luhansk "prove" that Russia's noble cause is to free the people of Ukraine from a fascist government.

Ukraine is losing the war

Articles:

3

Interactions:

4,453

Posts exaggerated the Russian Armed forces' victories against Ukraine's 65th brigade, claiming that it dealt a fatal blow to Ukraine's defensive efforts.

The West is losing interest in helping Ukraine

Articles:

1

Interactions:

2,700

The post focused on Germany and how it has delayed shipments of tanks to Ukraine, suggesting that it does not really support Ukraine.

ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCES OF SANCTIONS

Continuing sub-narratives:

Sanctions hurt the West more than Russia

Articles:

9

Interactions:

25,662

Posts mainly alleged that a large amount of Estonian and Latvian businessmen and EU parliamentarians are against anti-Russian sanctions as they hurt the economy too much.

Europe is threatened by an energy crisis

Articles:

5

Interactions:

12,768

Articles stressed that some Baltic institutions or businesses will have to drastically cut their energy consumption in order to survive, in order to stir up public anxiety (i.e., prisons in Latvia, the Riga airport, etc.).

Russia is unaffected by sanctions

Articles:

1

Interactions:

873

Posts stressed that Russia and Belarus are still able to invest in their space programme despite Western sanctions.

CONDITIONS OF RUSSIANS AND RUSSIAN-SPEAKING MINORITIES

Continuing sub-narratives:

X country is Russophobic / Russian culture is being attacked

Articles:

16

Interactions:

27,022

Posts mainly focused on (a) critiquing Latvia's decision to tackle the Soviet monument problem instead of allocating their resources to "more important issues"; (b) the Baltic states' "Russophobic" new laws; and (c) accusing the Baltics of "rewriting history".

MISCELLANEOUS

Continuing sub-narratives:

The West is hypocritical for caring about Ukraine so much

Articles:

1

Interactions:

914

Post claimed that the West's decision not to recognize the results of the referenda is a double standard because Western governments have been supporting separatist movements and organizing land annexations for decades.

The Latvian government is fascist

Articles:

1

---

Interactions:

345

The narrative emphasized that Latvians should not vote for anti-Russian parties as they spread fascism in the country.

Belarus

Press Club Belarus

Note: Press Club Belarus' contribution exclusively features content from Belarusian Telegram channels.

- The most frequently used narrative (in terms of the number of reposts) by pro-government media concerns the shelling of a convoy of civilian vehicles in the Kharkiv region. The media claimed that this was done by the Ukrainian military.
- Pro-Kremlin voices challenged the news produced by Ukrainian media about problems with mobilization in Russia. The channel "Zheltie Slivy Premium" claimed that all negative news about the mobilization comes from Ukrainian "propagandists". The pro-government "BELTA" refers to Lukashenka's speech, in which he claimed that Russia should not worry about mobilization and those who fled because of the large mobilization resource in Russia – approximately 25 million people. In general, propagandists turned a blind eye to successful Ukrainian operations in Kharkiv and Donetsk oblasts (including the liberation of Lyman); instead, they blamed the Ukrainian army for attacking civilians and committing war crimes.
- Telegram channel "Belarusian silovik" asserts that Zelensky's statement about signing an application for accelerated accession to NATO is not to be taken seriously.
- Regarding the staged referendums, pro-government media claimed that people voted against the Ukrainian state and authorities, which failed to protect them.
- State media promotes Lukashenka's claim that Europe cannot live without Russia, and therefore must agree on terms that are acceptable to Russia (and Belarus). He uses the food shortage narrative to rationalise lifting sanctions, in particular on Belarus' main export product - potash fertilizers. In general, the narrative that the only rational solution for the West is to enter negotiations with Russia and respect its interests remains strong.

EVENTS OF THE RUSSIA-UKRAINE WAR

New narratives:

The West/US is responsible for the sabotage of Nord Stream

Articles:

6

Interactions:

55,088

Discussing the case of the Nord Stream and Nord Stream 2 gas pipelines, Telegram channel "Zheltie Slivy Premium" claims that the main beneficiary of the recent explosions is the United States. It supposedly weakened its competitor, Germany, and will make large German businesses move to North America. Furthermore, the energy crisis makes production in Europe unprofitable, allowing the US to take over.

Ukraine should not/will not become a NATO member

Article:

1

Interactions:

25,706

The "Belorussian silovik" channel claims that one cannot take Zelensky's statement regarding his signing of an application for accelerated NATO accession seriously. According to the post, the announcement was made solely to divert attention away from Putin's speech.

Continuing narratives:

Mobilization in Russia is very successful

Articles:
10
Views:
1,009,185

The pro-government Telegram channel "BELTA" published Lukashenka's speech, where he said that Russia should not worry about the mobilization or those who fled the country because Russia has large human resources - 25 million people. It also quoted Abkhaz Foreign Minister Inal Ardzinba, who said that Abkhazia does not need mobilization because their volunteers have taken up arms and have been defending the freedom of Donbas since 2014 anyway.

Ukrainians are targeting civilians and commit other war crimes

Articles:
42
Views:
170,341

Several Telegram channels accused the Armed Forces of Ukraine of shelling civilian vehicle convoys trying to enter Russian-controlled territory in both Kherson and Zaporizhzhia.

Ukraine's leadership does not care about its people

Articles:
13
Views:
132,914

"Belorussian silovik" claims that Ukrainian troops attacked a gas pipeline in the Kherson region, leaving the residents of Nova Kakhovka without gas. The channel also claimed that Ukrainian students studying at foreign universities were detained when trying to leave the country, even though they have the legal right to do so. The "ATN_NEWS" channel argued that Ukrainians have been making Russian-speaking Ukrainians feel disadvantaged in their own country.

The US provoked the conflict between Ukraine and Russia

Articles:
17
Views:
97,293

"BELTA" referenced Lukashenko's speech from a year ago, where he said that Ukrainians, under the guise of training centres, were actually creating US military bases on the territory of Ukraine. The "Zheltie Slivy Premium" channel posted the opinion of former Swiss intelligence officer Jacques Baud, who said that Ukrainians are a tool that serves US interests.

The West is using Ukraine to wage war against Russia

Articles:
12
Views:
89185

"Minskaya Pravda" and other pro-government channels quote Blinken's statement that the US would not object to Kyiv using Western weapons against regions that may become part of the Russian Federation after the referendums. The channels equate the use of Western weapons against annexed territories as a US attack on Russia. "ATN_NEWS" claims that, in 2015, Western politicians said that Ukraine will become a battlefield and that they are not interested in a peaceful resolution.

Ukraine caused the war

Articles:
4
Views:
55,187

"Zheltie Slivy Premium" reports that the Ukrainian military staged a diversion on the border with Belarus by firing electronic guns to disable optical cameras. The channels questioned whether this incident should be interpreted as an act of aggression against Belarus.

Articles:
7

Pro-Lukashenko blogger Shpakovsky claims that Russia intentionally allowed the West to "pump up the muscles" of the Ukrainian army.

Russia is not fighting at full capacity

Views:
53,666

USA is using Ukraine to destroy Europe

Articles:
3
Views:
32,498

“Zheltie Slivy Premium” quotes pro-Lukashenko Deputy Hajdukevich: "They do not want to divide Ukraine, Europe is a trading card. The rates are rising. Belarus is a key link, a bridgehead in front of Russia. That is why they turned their attention to us, trying to stage a coup, an invasion, pull us into the war."

Ukrainians are Nazis

Articles:
3
Views:
27,683

Propagandists from “Zheltie Slivy Premium” used the school shooting in Izhevsk, Russia to accuse Ukraine and the Belarusian opposition of Nazism. They alleged that Ukrainians are celebrating the deaths of Russian children and that, like the shooter, wear swastikas on their bodies, flags, and armour.

Russian troops are advancing / achieving success

Articles:
1
Views:
22,623

“Belorussian silovik” claims that the mobilization will allow Putin to regain the initiative and capture Kharkiv, as well as Odesa.

The West is causing the global food crisis

Articles:
1
Views:
14,850

Blogger Yury Voskresensky quotes Putin, who claims that Western countries deceive the whole world by refusing to send Ukrainian grain to the poorest countries that need it most.

REFUGEES

Continuing sub-narratives:

Ukrainian refugees are spoiled/ungrateful

Articles:
2
Interactions:
37,717

“Zheltie Slivy Premium” published accusations made by Wojciech Bakun, the mayor of the town of Przemyśl bordering Ukraine, against Ukrainian refugees. He accused them of engaging in benefit tourism by crossing the border in Poland, receiving social security benefits, and then promptly returning home to Ukraine. The post uses quotation marks around the word “refugees” in order to suggest that they are not actually refugees and do not need safe haven.

ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCES OF SANCTIONS

Continuing narratives:

Western citizens do not support sanctions against Russia

Articles:
14
Views:
260,928

“BELTA” alleged that many British Twitter users were outraged by the statement made by British Prime Minister Liz Truss about her readiness to impose new sanctions against Russia after the DPR, LPR, Kherson and Zaporizhzhia annexations. The “Pool Pervogo” channel quoted Lukashenka to point out that the Europeans are now protesting against the sanctions, suggesting that Russia and Belarus will win the war.

Europe is threatened by an energy crisis

Articles:
4
Views:
166,651

“BELTA” quoted Slovak Prime Minister Eduard Heger, who believes that a huge increase in electricity prices could “kill the economy” of the country. State-owned “ONT NEWS” references a Forbes article to claim that Europe’s gas will run out earlier than politicians promise.

Sanctions hurt the West more than Russia

Articles:
4
Views:
84,026

“MIRBY” cites Hungarian Foreign Minister Peter Szijjártó, who claims that Europe’s sanctions policy has completely failed and has only hurt Europe. “Pool Pervogo” quoted Lukashenka’s statement that he is ready to resume agricultural cooperation with the West if the sanctions are lifted.

The inflation and the energy crises are caused by the West’s misguided political approach

Articles:
3
Views:
73,916

“Belorussian silovik” quotes Austrian stand-up artist Lisa Eckhart, who trolled the Germans for creating problems for themselves by adopting policies that will lead them to freeze this winter, like they did in Stalingrad in 1942. “Zheltie Slivy Premium” quotes Director of the European Weather Forecast Center to claim that Western Europe will experience a particularly cold winter this year and that it will not be able to rely on renewable energy as much as politicians had hoped. The post even suggests that Europe may already be freezing by November.

MILITARY THREAT TO EASTERN EUROPE/WAR EXPANDING BEYOND UKRAINE

Continuing narratives:

There will be a new Soviet Union

Articles:
1
Views:
470,121

Pro-Lukashenka speaker Dzermant gives his opinion that the recognition by Belarus of Abkhazia and other republics, the entry of four regions into Russia and, as a result, the formation of the “New Union” could be a continuation of the transformation of the Eurasian space, with Belarus serving as an outpost of the New Eurasia.

Russia is losing the war and will use nuclear weapons

Articles:
2
Views:
32,306

"Belorussian silovik" quotes Kadyrov, who called for the use of low-yield nuclear weapons in Ukraine.

New narratives:

Ukrainian media is lying

Articles:
2
Interactions:
50,736

"Zheltie Slivy Premium" alleged that the telegram channels that are trying to stir up a mobilization panic among Russians are run from Kyiv.

Continuing narratives:

The only way to end the war is to negotiate with Russia

Articles:
10
Interactions:
245,357

"Pool Pervogo" quotes Lukashenko, who claimed that Belarus is doing everything it can to stop the bloodshed.

The EU/US leadership is incompetent

Articles:
6
Interactions:
73,855

"Zheltie Slivy Premium" posted several messages portraying US President Joe Biden and the former Polish Minister of Foreign Affairs Sikorsky as incompetent "idiots".

Certain powers benefit from the war

Articles:
3
Interactions:
33,601

"Zheltie Slivy Premium" promotes the quote of pro-Lukashenka deputy Hajdukevich: "The goal of America in Europe now is not only Russia and its weakening... The main goal is the destruction of the German and Chinese economies."

The world is controlled by globalists

Articles:
9
Interactions:
29,394

"MIRBY" quotes Russia's permanent representative to international organizations in Vienna, Mikhail Ulyanov, who said that the IAEA was convinced that Ukrainian troops were shelling the Zaporizhzhia nuclear power plant, but ignored this fact due to US pressure.

Russia is not violating international law

Articles:
1
Interactions:
5,600

"BELTA" quotes Russia's permanent representative to international organizations in Vienna, Mikhail Ulyanov who said that there could be no talk of demilitarizing the Zaporizhzhia NPP because it has never been militarized.

BULGARIA

Center for the Study of Democracy

- The topic that attracted the most attention of pro-Kremlin propagandists this week was the events of the Russia-Ukraine war. The most frequent was messaging attempting to prove the legitimacy of the staged “referenda” in the occupied territories. The story goes that i) Kherson belongs to Russia and Zelensky was naïve to think differently; ii) Donbas is returning to its homeland; iii) the Russian state is increasing in size, while Ukraine is shrinking – this is key evidence that Russia is victorious.
- Ignoring all the success of the Ukrainian army in Kharkiv and Donetsk oblasts and turning their blind eye to the liberation of Lyman, propagandists stubbornly continue to claim that Ukraine is losing the war. Pro-Kremlin media, primarily pogled.info and svobodnoslovo.eu, repeatedly blame the West for waging war on Russia via Ukraine.
- Local pro-Kremlin voices continued emphasizing the dependence of both Bulgaria and the entire EU on Russian energy supplies. The sanctions against Russia are portrayed as having zero support from EU citizens.
- Anti-refugees messaging was detected in a handful of articles.

For comparison, the most interacted with individual Ukraine-related article across Bulgarian news portals this week received 8,000 interactions.

EVENTS OF THE RUSSIA-UKRAINE WAR

New sub-narrative:

The West/US is responsible for the sabotage of Nord Stream

Articles:

1

Interactions:

175

Articles suggested that sabotage of the Nord Stream gas pipeline is either American propaganda or it was sabotaged by the US.

Continuing sub-narratives:

Ukraine "referendums" are legitimate

Articles:

10

Interactions:

13,863

Various articles containing details about the "referendums" being legitimate. Stories about Kherson belonging to Russia and Zelensky being naïve to think any different, as well as Donbas returning to its "real homeland".

Russia is not fighting at full capacity

Articles:

5

Interactions:

2,669

Articles claiming that Russia has not yet used all of its available capabilities and that its new weapons and/or tactics will soon be seen.

Ukraine is losing the war

Articles:

4

Interactions:

314

Article quoted Colonel McGregor, who claims that the AFU counter-offensive is creating the illusion that Ukraine is still holding out. Other articles focused on Ukraine's heavy losses and a story that Russia destroyed the military arsenals of Ukraine and NATO.

There are tensions between the West and Ukraine

Articles:

2

Interactions:

325

One article suggests that no one in the West cares about Zelensky's reputation, because he can always be replaced. For example, with the commander-in-chief of Ukraine's Armed Forces, Valery Zaluzhny.

The West is using Ukraine to wage war against Russia

Articles:

2

Interactions:

310

Article alleges that the West is ready to strike any country, to turn it into an epicentre of crisis, provoking revolutions and blood baths.

Ukraine is preparing a nuclear attack

Articles:

1

Interactions:

45

Article alleging that Kyiv is preparing a nuclear provocation.

Foreign mercenaries are fighting for Ukraine

Articles:

1

Interactions:

34

Article talks about "foreign scoundrels in the service of the Kyiv regime".

Ukrainians are targeting civilians and commit other war crimes

Articles:

1

Interactions:

27

Article claiming that a Ukrainian missile struck a hotel in Kherson, resulting in civilian casualties.

REFUGEES

Continuing sub-narratives:

Ukrainian refugees are spoiled/ungrateful

Articles:

3

Interactions:

1,303

Story about Ukrainian refugees in Portugal, who complain of housing problems, a lack of heating, and being surrounded by Russians.

ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCES OF SANCTIONS

Continuing sub-narratives:

Sanctions hurt the West more than Russia

Articles:

7

Interactions:

5,447

Articles about the hardships that Europeans face because of the sanctions. Sanctions against Russia have been approved by Brussels bureaucrats and European elites without consultation with the people. Hungary's foreign policy towards Russia is presented as a positive example.

Western citizens do not support sanctions against Russia

Articles:

1

Interactions:

5,300

Article about protests in Prague, suggesting that Western opposition to sanctions is fairly widespread.

MILITARY THREATS TO EASTERN EUROPE/RISK OF WAR EXPANDING BEYOND UKRAINE

Continuing sub-narratives:

Russia is losing the war and will use nuclear weapons

Articles:

3

Interactions:

1,581

Authors claim that Russia is being backed into a corner and will have no other choice as to use nuclear weapons.

There will be a new Soviet Union

Articles:

Author states that Western media are creating a completely distorted picture of the war in Ukraine to the benefit of the Kyiv regime and to the detriment of Russia.

Certain powers benefit from the war

Articles:

1

Interactions:

744

Author states that people are as free as far as foreign countries allow them to be.

CZECHIA

Prague Security Studies Initiative

- A major event that resonated throughout the disinformation media this week was the sabotage of Russia's Nord Stream pipeline. The disinformation media consistently and in a seemingly coordinated manner attributed the blame for this sabotage on the United States and questioned the possibility of Russia's responsibility. It is also provided as a "point of no return" in the escalation of conflict between the West and Russia.
- The amount of messaging on the Nord Stream incident is so massive compared to other topics this week that it is likely that this is a coordinated information operation. We can observe the classic technique of Russian propaganda of various unrelated and sometimes competing narratives and explanations created around one super-narrative ("the US is responsible for the sabotage"), which on the one hand obfuscates the situation and on the other hand points to their "mother" super-narrative.
- The narrative of Ukraine supposedly losing the war still follows the model seen in previous weeks, suggesting huge losses to the Ukrainian army in an offensive that Ukraine cannot afford, leading to its downfall. It is safe to assume that this narrative will soon disappear, as it will be unsustainable in the face of widely available reports of Ukrainian successes on the front.
- Disinformation voices attempting to portray the situation on the battlefield in a positive light are kind experiencing a kind of "thematic distress". In view of the overwhelmingly negative developments on the front, they must concentrate on separate small victories to create an illusion of success for the Russian military in Ukraine.
- The topic of alleged US biological laboratories in Ukraine and the deployment of weapons of mass destruction is still present, albeit with low intensity. Nowadays, this topic is taking on an interesting new spin, with claims that the US is developing biological weapons that only attack people with certain genetic characteristics (Russians). These fantastical theories are then easily linked to the already existing conspiracy theories of the pharmaceutical industry that arose in the wake of COVID-19 (including claims of weapons targeting only Slavs).
- There has been a bizarre and so far unsuccessful attempt to link the issue of terror against the Russian-speaking population with the Czechia. Terrorists trained by Czechia have allegedly been detained and, according to Russian claims, were supposed to have carried out terrorist attacks on polling stations during the referenda. From a regional perspective, it is important to follow up on this sub-narrative, but it does not seem to have caught on yet, even given the low interaction rates.

For comparison, the most interacted with individual Ukraine-related article across Bulgarian news portals this week received 16,800 interactions.

EVENTS OF THE RUSSIA-UKRAINE WAR

New sub-narrative:

The West/US is responsible for the sabotage of Nord Stream

Articles:

42

Interactions:

5,927

A new and extremely popular disinformation narrative this week attributed responsibility for the destruction of the Nord Stream pipeline to the United States. A manipulated statement made by President Biden, predating the war, was often used as "evidence".

Continuing sub-narratives:

Ukraine is losing the war

Articles:

6

Interactions:

863

This narrative focused heavily on exaggerated depictions of Ukrainian casualties in combat.

The West is using Ukraine to wage war against Russia

Articles:

1

Interactions:

606

The West's involvement in the war is linked to the issue of attacking Russian territory (i.e., annexed parts of Ukraine). Disinformation actors have implied that supporting Ukraine in attacking this territory is an act of war.

Ukrainians are targeting civilians and commit other war crimes

Articles:

2

Interactions:

39

The Armed Forces of Ukraine are routinely blamed in the disinformation media for all attacks against civilians that are attributed in the mainstream media to the Russian military. In this case, for example, the attack on a convoy of civilian vehicles.

REFUGEES

Continuing sub-narratives:

Ukrainian refugees are spoiled/ungrateful

Articles:

2

Interactions:

60

Narratives that are critical of immigrants and have appeared only very sporadically, and primarily as news from neighbouring Germany, rather than a local issue. This is a technique that Czech disinformation actors have been fond of using in the past, when reporting on the alleged excesses of Muslim refugees.

CONDITIONS OF RUSSIANS AND RUSSIAN-SPEAKING MINORITIES

Continuing sub-narratives:

Ukrainians discriminate against/terrorize Russian speakers

Articles:

3

Interactions:

124

An attempt to link the issue of terror against the Russian-speaking population directly to the Czech Republic. The articles alleged that the "terrorists" who were to carry out attacks against polling stations during the referenda in Ukraine were trained in the Czech Republic.

MILITARY THREATS TO EASTERN EUROPE/RISK OF WAR EXPANDING BEYOND UKRAINE

Continuing sub-narratives:

Russia is losing the war
and will use nuclear weapons

Articles:
9
Interactions:
180

The sub-narrative about potential nuclear escalation appears only sporadically at the moment, mainly in the form of threats towards the US. Disinformation actors suggest that, in the event of such an escalation, the US will not be safe either.

MILITARY AID TO UKRAINE

New sub-narratives:

The West will no longer provide Ukraine with military aid

Articles:
5
Interactions:
248

The narrative of waning Western aid to Ukraine focuses on isolated statements made by the leaders of individual states. For example, New Zealand's statement that it does not currently have any of the weapons that Ukraine requires is manipulatively presented as an indication of waning Western assistance.

Continuing sub-narratives:

Western military aid is useless

Articles:
1
Interactions:
152

This narrative is connected to the sub-narratives that maximize the minor partial successes of the Russian army and maximize the failures of the Ukrainian Armed Forces to create the impression of positive developments on the front. In this particular case, arguments are made about the uselessness of HIMARS rocket launchers in Donbas.

MISCELLANEOUS

Continuing sub-narratives:

Biological weapons labs in Ukraine

Articles:
2
Interactions:
149

A new variant of the bioweapons sub-narrative is emerging, claiming that genetic material is being collected from Ukrainians and Russians in order to create a "racist" bioweapon that will only attack Russians.

ESTONIA

DebunkEU.org

- EKRE continues to focus on claims that war refugees are Russifying and otherwise destabilizing the country. Additionally, they promote claims that the energy crisis has been caused exclusively by the Estonian government and the EU's green agenda, without any recognition of impact from the war in Ukraine.
- Anti-sanctions messaging was widespread as usual. It has been intertwined with anti-EU statements and Covid conspiracies. The primary claims are that Estonia is in the midst of economic catastrophe due to the COVID-19 hoax and the proxy war in Ukraine, while Russia is laughing as Europe suffers from its own sanctions.
- Tucker Carlson alleged that the Nord Stream pipelines were sabotaged by the Biden administration. A conservative source in the USA also cited a Trump-era official who compared Ukraine's situation to that of the Wehrmacht at the end of 1942, echoing both the "Ukraine is losing the war" and "Ukrainians are Nazis" sub-narratives.

For comparison, the most interacted with individual Ukraine-related article across Estonian news portals this week received 3,000 interactions.

GEORGIA

GRASS

- The most popular message in terms of interactions and number of cases concerned Georgia's foreign policy. Propagandists portrayed the illegal annexation of Ukrainian territory by Russia as a looming threat for Georgia (validly), using this as an argument to state that Georgia should abandon European and Euro-Atlantic aspirations and align with Russia, or otherwise Georgia would face the same problems.
- The message that the West, with the help of local opposition parties, seeks to open a second front in Georgia against Russia has remained moderately popular, despite declining from its peak.
- Events of the war are increasingly getting more attention, with the primary messages of propagandists being that NATO aspirations provoked the war, and that Ukraine is losing the war (downplaying the significance of the Ukrainian counter-offensive).
- Other messages suggested that Poland aims to annex Ukrainian territory and that Russia's sham "referenda" are legitimate.
- Regarding economic sanctions, apart from the main line of propaganda that the sanctions hurt the West more than Russia, pro-Russian voices came up with a conspiracy that this economic crisis and the explosion of the Nord Stream pipeline has been orchestrated by the US, which benefits from this scheme and at the same time weakens both Europe and Russia.
- Messages concerning military aid to Ukraine popped up once again but was the least popular primary narrative, both in terms of interactions and number of articles. They suggested two mutually exclusive claims that weaponry does not reach Ukraine because the Ukrainian mafia smuggles it to Africa and Albania, and that Ukraine targets civilians with military aid and would soon start striking Russian border towns.

Leader of the pro-Russian political party Conservative Movement, Zurab Makharadze, drew a rather gloomy picture of the European economy -- especially German industries -- emphasising that the energy imports from Russia are at a historic low due to the sanctions imposed on the Kremlin. Explaining the core reasons for this, Makharadze claimed that, during the 2014 Maidan revolution in Ukraine, Americans like John McCain encouraged the Ukrainians to alter the political vector, convincing them that the political changes in Kyiv would mean progress for Ukraine as well as the entirety of Europe. However, Alt-Info's leader insisted that none of that has happened - neither Europe nor Ukraine have received any benefits from the Maidan revolution, and that the US has, in fact, exploited both due to its rivalry with Russia, forcing the old continent to face unprecedented economic challenges.

Reporting on the Nord Stream pipeline gas leaks, the anti-Western Facebook page Infoanalitika used President Biden's February 8 statement about the US bringing an end to the Nord Stream 2 pipeline if Russia invades Ukraine. In doing so, Infoanalitika indirectly suggested that the alleged act of sabotage was carried out by the US with the aim of disturbing deepening trade and cooperation between Russia and Western Europe.

Leader of the pro-Russian political party Conservative Movement, Zurab Makharadze, reiterated that Ukraine is experiencing war due to its NATO aspirations. He claimed that Russia started the war because NATO and the US did not give it appropriate security guarantees and, as a result, Russia has taken territories from Ukraine and declared them as their own. According to Makharadze, despite these circumstances, when Ukrainians asked for assistance, NATO rejected the idea of accepting Ukraine into the alliance.

On the air on Alt-Info, Shota Martinenko, one of the leaders of the pro-Russian Conservative Movement, stated that it is more likely that the situation will turn in favour of Russia - if Russia mobilises its army, it will become more difficult for the Ukrainians to win, as Ukraine would not be able to make any significant moves.

Also on Alt-Info, the head pro-Russian outlet TaoNews, Nikoloz Mzhavanadze, stated that Russia is clearly winning because it has annexed territories twice as large as the entirety of Georgia.

Analyst Revaz Kilasonia tried to downplay Ukraine's counter-offensive and developed the idea that, if Ukraine's counterattack were indeed effective, it would have continued to advance. According to Kilasonia, if the Russian army had collapsed and the Russians were leaving Ukrainian territories, the counter-offensive should not have been halted.

She ironically added that the winter and cold weather were coming for Europeans, accustomed to comfort.

Alt-Info once again repeated the propaganda narratives on economic sanctions, reporting on the protest in Prague against soaring prices and the energy crisis. Since many protesters reportedly linked their economic woes to the Western-imposed sanctions on Russia, Alt-Info claimed that the economic sanctions, meant to destroy the Russian economy, turned out to have a "boomerang effect", hurting the Western capitals more than Moscow itself. It also alleged that a wave of protests has engulfed many EU countries.

Another TV presenter from Alt-Info TV, Tatia Gabrichidze, speculated that the US and its embassy in Georgia are using the UNM (largest opposition party in Georgia) to reach their goals in Georgia. She claimed that those radical political groups supported by the US, together with numerous US agents, are trying to open a second front in Georgia.

A member of the political council of the Conservative Movement, Irakli Morgoshia, in an interview with Alt-Info TV, noted that the West and destructive forces in Georgia desire to open a second front against Russia and that Georgians should be very careful about that. Morgoshia stated that such efforts might provoke Russia to hold a referendum in the Abkhazia and South Ossetia/Samatchablo region, as they recently did in Ukraine.

One of the leaders of the pro-Russian political party Conservative Movement, Irakli Martinenko, argued on Alt-Info TV that NATO aspirations caused Russia's annexation of Ukrainian territories. He suggested that Lukashenka's recent visit to Georgia's Russian-occupied Abkhazia region demonstrated that Georgia was facing the same threat and criticised the policy of NATO aspirations and called for negotiations with Russia. The party has repeatedly called for negotiations with Russia to sort out the terms under which Georgia would be within Russia's sphere of influence.

Kremlin-sponsored News-Front also blamed Lukashenko's visit to Abkhazia on Georgia and Georgia's pro-Western foreign policy. The outlet criticized PM Garibashvili for his speech at the UN GA, claiming that it was full of pro-Western rhetoric and messages stressing the need for European and Euro-Atlantic integration, which is unacceptable. News-Front also advocated for talks with Moscow.

One of the leaders of the pro-Russian political party Conservative Movement, Zurab Makharadze, stated that if Georgians do not want to share the destiny of Ukraine -- to lose territories and face destruction -- everyone who is sane and reasonable, and who wants to save Georgia, should back the Conservative Movement's policy, which envisages a close relationship and direct dialogue with the Russian Federation.

- This week, Kremlin-backed propagandists in Hungary were mostly focused on the staged referenda and the possible sabotage of the Nord Stream pipeline.
- More than a dozen articles were identified that contained distorted messages about the “referenda” in some extent. They portrayed the staged votes as legitimate and wrote furiously about those who don’t recognise it.
- Articles about the sabotage attack on the Nord Stream pipelines accused the US of organising the attacks. A Facebook post even suggested that Russian submarines should do “the same” with US LNG carrier ships.
- Attempts to provide an apocalyptic picture of the consequences of anti-Russian sanctions for the West remain frequent. Articles cited the Hungarian PM’s claim that leaders of EU member states will be replaced by their citizens, who don’t support the sanctions. An article even claimed that President of the European Commission Ursula von der Leyen should be brought to the International Court of Justice because her sanction policy cost the lives of European children and elderly people.
- Disinformation contents that exaggerate Russian military successes were less prevalent than before. Narratives about refugees and Western military aid didn’t reappear.

- This week, the most focus was once again placed on the events of the Russia-Ukraine war. The new narrative is that the US is planning a nuclear detonation in Ukraine. Propagandists also blamed the West for waging war on Russia in Ukraine, portraying Russian soldiers as “liberators” welcomed by the local population (including legitimisation of the illegal referenda).
- Significant attention is given to the Nord Stream pipeline explosion, which is explained as US sabotage. An old quote from President Biden was decontextualized and used for these claims. There were also two cases of disinformation actors claiming that the annexation of Ukrainian lands was legitimate. Claims about the West being at open war with Russia continued in addition to the aforementioned new sub-narrative claiming that the US is planning a nuclear explosion in Ukraine.
- Narratives focusing on Ukrainian refugees had two unique cases. One claimed that Ukrainian refugees are wealthy and should not receive support, while the other mocked the Lithuanian government for supporting Ukrainian students in Lithuania.
- Only three pieces of disinformation focusing on the economic situation of Europe were recorded this week. It was claimed that inflation and the energy crisis are caused only by the West. - A new narrative this week involved accusations against the US, made by the Russian MFA spokeswoman Zakharova as well as Macedonian politician and pro-Russian voice Solza Grčeva, over the recent Nord Stream leaks.
- Topics related to the events of Russia-Ukraine war prevailed again this week, both in terms of the number of articles and interactions. The statements of FM Lavrov, where he claimed that the West wants to destroy Russia and that NATO is directly involved in the war, were broadcast in another attempt to justify the war and its eventual escalation. His narratives were further supported by the sub-narrative “the West forced Russia to attack Ukraine”, promoted by Belarusian FM Vladimir Makei, who blamed the West for the bloodshed in Ukraine. The pro-Russian voice Sašo Tasevski also promoted this narrative. The sub-narrative that the West is causing the global food crisis was employed by Russian President Putin, who blamed it on Western sanctions. Finally, Russian Patriarch Kirill called upon Russians to go to war, in an attempt to boost the mobilization effort. Considering his role and the messaging since the beginning of the invasion, it has to be noted that the Russian Orthodox Church, through its Patriarch, is paving the way for Orthodox extremism.
- With respect to the economic consequences of sanctions, Hungarian PM Orban continued to promote anti-sanctions messaging. He claimed that the inflation and energy crises are caused by the false political approach of the West and that Hungary will hold a referendum on introducing sanctions against Russia, thus implying that the EU imposed sanctions without popular consent. He also continued the narrative that sanctions hurt the West more than Russia. Orban continues to be one of the most influential European voices promoting pro-Russian narratives.
- Dmitriy Medvedev again issued military threats, claiming that Russia has every right to use nuclear weapons if its existence is threatened, thus promoting the sub-narrative that Putin will wipe out Europe with the Sarmat. Chechen dictator Ramzan Kadyrov also called for the use of tactical nuclear weapons after the fall of Lyman in eastern Ukraine. With these narratives, the focus is slowly shifting away from the question of whether Russia will use nuclear weapons towards how and when it will use them.
- Within the Miscellaneous narrative, Macedonian pro-Russian voice Sašo Tasevski presented Putin as a master strategist and claimed that the war is going exactly as planned.

- This week, pro-Kremlin propaganda in Poland primarily focused on news from the frontlines. The amount of attention given to the topic shifted the traditionally dominant anti-refugee narratives to the margins.
- Propagandists were notorious in promoting the claims that the staged “referenda” were legitimate and that the mobilization in Russia has been very successful so far.
- Anti-refugee messaging this week focused on the statements of the mayor of Przemyśl. He accused Ukrainian refugees of engaging in benefit tourism -- returning home to Ukraine immediately after receiving benefits in Poland. These allegations were used to create an image of greedy Ukrainians deliberately abusing the goodwill of the Polish state.

ROMANIA

GlobalFocus Center

- As in several other countries, the most interacted with narrative this week involved accusations of US involvement in the Nord Stream pipeline sabotage. Claims that the West is i) using Ukraine to wage war against Russia; ii) seeks to undermine Romania's economy with its misguided policies; iii) is dictatorial; iv) is faltering politically and economically; and v) is secretly trading with Russia were also prevalent. Overall, pro-Russian disinformation actors in Romania seem to be primarily focused on strong anti-Western and Eurosceptic messaging that is meant to push audiences towards either neutrality or alignment with Russia.
- A significant portion of the disinformation in Romania revolves around conspiracy theories. According to one article, President Zelensky continues the war so that his Western "puppet masters" can continue enriching themselves. Another article alleges that the corrupt elites in Bucharest do not wish Romania to be prosperous and thus sabotage profitable energy deals. Conservative politicians Aurelian Pavelescu claims that the West and Russia have a secret economic pact. However, the dominant conspiracy theory this week attributes the Nord Stream damage to US-organized sabotage.
- Far-right voices continued to use the remaining prestige of the former Minister of Foreign Affairs, who claimed last week that Ukrainian borders are unnatural, and that Romania, Hungary, and Poland are historically entitled to some of its territories. Mr. Marga continued his string of declarations, now saying that there will be no winners in this war and that, sooner or later, the EU will have to foot the bill.
- Articles legitimizing the "referenda" in the occupied territories and presenting Russian soldiers as "saviours" were detected but were few in number.
- Narratives about the situation on the frontlines, military aid, or Ukrainian refugees were not observed in Romania this week.

For comparison, the most interacted with individual Ukraine-related article across Romanian news portals this week received 21,600 interactions.

SERBIA

European Western Balkans

- On October 2, Prime Minister Ana Brnabić said that Serbia is suffering pressure from hypocritical Western “great powers” when it comes to Ukraine. Interior Minister Aleksandar Vulin, who has ties to the Kremlin, claimed that the US expects Serbia to join its anti-Russian hysteria. One of the most prevalent narratives in the Serbian media and among ruling politicians is that the West is pressuring “neutral” countries to impose sanctions against Russia.
- The most prevalent narratives this week dealt with the events of the Russia-Ukraine war. Messaging legitimizing the staged referenda and the annexation of Ukrainian territories was the most notorious. The narrative that Russia was strengthened by the annexations and will now fight against Ukraine and the West at full capacity was also observed.
- Several articles containing anti-sanctions messages were identified. Pro-Russian voices claim that the sanctions enjoy zero support from EU citizens; pictures from the protests in Prague were provided as evidence. The EU’s dependence on Russian gas supplies was also emphasized.
- This week, messaging discrediting Ukrainian refugees or victimizing Russian and Russian-speaking minorities was not observed.

For comparison, the most interacted with individual Ukraine-related article across Serbian news portals this week received 321 interactions.

- This week, the greatest amount of attention in Slovakia was, once again, given to the topic of sanctions, particularly the claim that they harm the West more than Russia. The topic appears to be appealing to the local population, as it refers to feeling of anxiety among the rising inflation and energy prices. Most of the posts spreading this narrative were shared by MEP Milan Uhrík.
- Covering the conflict, local pro-Kremlin voices devoted special attention to the allegations that the West is blocking all attempts to restore peace in Ukraine. This may constitute a meaningful turn in Kremlin propaganda if the trend continues over the following weeks. Considering that Russia is losing the recently occupied territories, it may want to provoke pressure from the West in order to force Kyiv to accept peace terms that benefit Russia
- Anti-Western messages were, as always, prevalent in Slovakia. This week, pro-Kremlin voices accused the US of committing the Nord Stream pipeline sabotage in order to increase pressure and control over Europe. The opposition party Republika is still claiming that the is profiting from the war and European sanctions.

For comparison, the most interacted with individual Ukraine-related article across Slovak news portals this week received 9,500 interactions.

Detector Media

Note: Detector Media's contribution exclusively features content from Ukrainian Russian-language Telegram channels.

- This week, pro-Russian Telegram channels focused on the following claims: i) Ukraine should not be able to or will not become a NATO member; ii) Ukraine is losing almost 20% of its territory; iii) Russia will protect its newly acquired territories at any price, including a nuclear strike; iv) the West (USA, in particular) benefits from the war; v) the West will cease its weapons transfers to Ukraine.
- Despite its successful counter-offensive and de-occupation of the illegally annexed territories, pro-Russian Telegram channels continue to spread the message that Ukraine is losing the war.
- As in numerous other countries monitored for this report, pro-Russian Telegram channels in Ukraine blamed the West – the US, in particular – for the Nord Stream pipeline damage.
- Attempts to discredit the Ukrainian authorities and the Western allies continued for yet another week. Accusations of corruption and incompetence have been particularly prevalent.
